

Biographies

Roberto Sanchez-Dahl, CFA is a managing director and senior portfolio manager at Manulife Asset Management, providing both portfolio management and investment analysis on the Emerging Markets Debt strategies. Prior to joining Manulife Asset Management, Roberto was a senior portfolio manager and senior investment analyst with Federated Investment Management Corp. in Pittsburgh, PA from 1997 to 2013. From 1994 to 1997, Roberto was an associate in the Credit Department at Goldman Sachs & Co. in New York City. He began his career in 1993 with Moody's Investors Service in New York.

Education: BS in Mechanical Electric Engineering from Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico; Associates Degree in Corporate Finance from Instituto Tecnologico Autonomo de Mexico; MBA from Columbia University in New York.

Joined Company: 2013

Began Career: 1993