

Biographies

Paolo H. Valle is a managing director and senior portfolio manager at Manulife Asset Management, providing both portfolio management and investment analysis on the Emerging Markets Debt strategies. Prior to joining Manulife Asset Management, Paolo was a senior portfolio manager at Federated Investment Management Company in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania from 2004 to 2013. Previously he was Chief Investment Officer of Ramirez Asset Management in New York City, from 2001 to 2004. Prior to that he was a managing partner with Valle Advisors (1999-2000), and a first vice president with Merrill Lynch Investment Management (1992-1999), both in Princeton, New Jersey. Paolo began his career at PNC Financial Corporation in 1982 and over a 10 year career rose to become vice president and head of the emerging markets group.

Education: MBA from University of Pittsburgh; BS in Business Administration from Universidad del Pacifico in Lima, Peru

Joined Firm: 2013

Began Career: 1982